

November 1, 2019

9:30 Opening

10:00 Ayako KUSUNOKI (Nichi-Bun-Ken)

«The End of the “Yoshida Doctrine” ? Japan’ s Foreign and Security Policy in the post-Cold War period »

11:00 Kei TAKATA (University of Duisburg-Essen)

_ « Combining Particularity with Universality in Japanese Studies »_

14:00 Juan Luis Lopez ARANGUREN (University of Zaragoza)

« New research and post-graduate studies on Japanese Studies in Spain: challenges and opportunities »

15:00 Filis Maria GOUNGOR (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)

«The study of the History of Economic Thought as a means of progress; getting to know better the economic ideas of contemporary Japan and world “instructors” »

16:00 Felice FARINA (University of Naples)

«Japan’s international relations of food: from food self sufficiency to gastrodiploamacy. The role of food in Japan’s postwar economic security and economic diplomacy»

November 2, 2019

10:00 Yusuke SUZUMURA (Meijo University)

«Meaning and Possibility of Social Sciences in Japanese Studies and Education on Japan. »

11:00 Dunja Sharbat DAR (Ruhr University Bochum)

« Recreating Communal Ties : Shinto and Christian Communities in Fukushima after 3.11 »

14:00 Kazuya SUGIYAMA (Aoyama-Gakuin University)

«Another Historical Origin of Japanese Literary Studies »

15:00 General Discussion

17:00 Closing